Hi all,

We've heard that the draft PFBS assessment that was loaded on the web January 19th will be pulled down today and that action will be accompanied by a press release speaking to the issues associated with the posting.

The CPHEA comms director, Kelly Widener, is going to see if she can find out when the press release will come out. As soon as I hear, I'll let you know and get it to you as well.

If you get any inquiries, before responding, please forward to me and Kelly. We will coordinate with ORD comms, Carolyn Hubbard, on any communications or responses around this.

Thank you!
Samantha
